LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING AND TESTIMONY

Healthy Workplace Bill

I am the author of the Healthy Workplace Bill, model legislation to provide redress for severe workplace bullying. Since 2003, variations of the bill have been introduced (but as of Summer 2010, not yet enacted) in some 17 states.

In addition to drafting the legislation, my efforts have included:

- Testimony in support of Massachusetts version of the bill, before the Joint Committee on Labor and Workforce Development of the Massachusetts Legislature (January 2010).
- Ongoing consultations with advocates and legislative staff in the states concerning specific provisions of the bill.
- Drafting position statements and op-eds supporting the legislation.
- Responding to media inquiries.

Additional legislative work

- Author, Massachusetts House No. 186, “An Act Creating the Commonwealth Community Fund” (Rep. Frank Smizik, D-Brookline, lead sponsor) legislation proposing a state-funded foundation that provides seed-money and emergency grants to grassroots non-profit organizations (2007).
- Testimony in support of Massachusetts Senate No. 802, a bill extending the statute of limitations in employment discrimination and harassment claims under Massachusetts law, before the Joint Judiciary Committee of the Massachusetts Legislature (May 1999).
