What you should do

The members of your household listed on your Need Access Application differ from the number reported on your FAFSA. The law says we have the right to ask you to confirm this information before awarding Federal aid. If there are differences between your application information and your financial documents, you or your school may need to make corrections electronically or by using your Student Aid Report (SAR).

Complete this Household Information Worksheet form and submit it to your financial aid administrator as soon as possible, so that your financial aid won't be delayed. Your financial aid administrator will help you.

1. Talk to your financial aid administrator if you have questions about completing this worksheet.
2. Complete and sign the worksheet.
3. Submit the completed worksheet and any other documents your school requests to your financial aid administrator.
4. Your financial aid administrator will compare information on this worksheet and any supporting documents with the information you submitted on your application. You or your school may need to make corrections electronically or by using your SAR.
