8. Special Circumstances

On a separate piece of paper, explain any special family circumstances such as illness, unusual expenses, etc. which may make it difficult for you or your family to contribute to your educational expenses. Please sign your statement. Where necessary attach documentation or proof of your claim.

9. Loan Information

Loan Entrance Counseling – All first-time borrowers at Suffolk Law must complete loan entrance counseling. This may be completed on the Web prior to your first loan disbursement: www.law.suffolk.edu/offices/finaid/counseling.cfm. You only need to complete this requirement once.

Federal Stafford Loan – All loans will be certified with your lender for the maximum amount, unless you indicate otherwise. You will receive notification of your loan eligibility via your financial aid award letter. If you wish to borrow less than the amount on your award letter, notify our office immediately. If borrowing for the first time, you must also complete a Federal Stafford Loan Master Promissory Note.

Please select one of the following:

Process my loan for the maximum amount ($20,500) in both subsidized and unsubsidized loans.

Process my loan for a reduced amount. The total amount of subsidized and unsubsidized I wish to borrow for both semesters is $ _____

Federal Graduate PLUS Loan and Private Educational Loans – Should you need to borrow additional funds beyond the financial aid award indicated in your Suffolk financial aid award letter, you may wish to consider borrowing a Federal Graduate PLUS Loan or private educational loans. If you decide to borrow from these loan programs, please initiate the application on your own after you receive your Suffolk financial aid award letter and you have determined the amount you need to borrow. It is recommended that the application be completed no later than the fall billing due date of July 1, 2007.

However, you may apply for loans at any time during the academic year. Further information on borrowing will be included with your Suffolk financial aid award letter and can be found online in the Office of Financial Aid section of the Suffolk Law Web site, under "Loans."
